92 <h4>Creating a Posting</h4>
93
94 A Posting is the term we use to define the advertisement a user
95 submits to facilitate a transaction between users.
96 A posting should contain valuable information to potential buyers in 97 order to attract people to buy.
98
99 <ol>
100 <li>Click the "New Posting" button at the very top of the screen to open the form to complete.</li>
101 <li>Now you need to fill out all required fields: </li>
102 <ul>
103 <li>Title: brief snippet explaining your good or service. A maximum of 30 characters.</li>
104 <li>Category: You do not have to select any, and "Any" will be selected.
    However, the "Any" category will result in fewer people being able to search for your product or service.</li> 105 <li>Price: The price you wish to set. The range is from $0 to $2,000
    (inclusive). As it is a cash-only site,
106 hard to justify more expensive transactions for college students.</li> 107 <li>Description: A longer description of your good or service. The

119 <h4>Transactions</h4>
120
121     Transactions occur when both a buyer and seller "Claim" a posting. The user claiming to be be the seller, must 122     be the same user who created said posting. The buyer can be any other user. After either the buyer OR seller 123     submit their "claim," they must wait for the other (seller OR buyer respectively) to claim as well. These claims 124     are a way for the users to rate other users on the opposite end of a transaction. After both the seller and buyer have 125     submitted claims and they both validate that they were involved in the transaction, the ratings are updated 126     based on the given ratings. Both users shall be notified when the transaction completes with 2 corresponding claims.
